

Puddams BBQ Report

Last Weekend Lee & Vicky had their annual Barbecue in sunny East Dorset. The event was ably attended by locals: Mark Williams, Bob Styles, Andy Pratt, Mac Wright, Wayne Spicer, Pete & Matt Loveless supported by various partners (Matt even brought an alleged girlfriend). Jon Winter and Samantha put in a guest appearance bringing with them various party games and Jon's skills as an arsonist!

BBQ following Jon's enthusiastic use of fire lighter fuel.

Much alcohol was consumed. Bob wasn't holding back, drinking straight from the Archers bottle for most of the night.

We also concluded that, if Lee drives like he cooks he would probably be in the H Final.

Despite this Wayne was on hand to eat anything that moved as usual.

A good night was had by all as were a number of hangovers the next day.
